

The Family Room

Families can meet and relax in our family room, where there is a television and a bed settee for carers who may need to sleep over in the hospice

