

Frequently Asked Questions

What is a hospice?

A hospice is a specialist centre for supporting people with a life threatening illness

More »

What does Palliative Care mean?

Palliative care involves management of patient's pain and other symptoms. It also provides valuable psychological, social and spiritual support as well as support for family/carers.

More »

What is Supportive Care?

The aim of supportive care is to help patients and their families/carers cope with cancer and its treatment from pre-diagnosis, diagnosis, treatment, cure, continuing illness, death and into bereavement.

More »