

Business Relationships

Willowbrook Hospice welcomes support from businesses in our community!

Business Partners

By working in partnership with us you can show a different side to your business, your community work and corporate responsibility, and in return, we can offer you opportunities for publicity, team building and corporate entertaining.

How Can you Help?

There are many ways that your business can get involved and help the Hospice.

- Encourage your employees to take part in a sponsored event
- Bring your clients to one of our Corporate Events: Golf, Gala Ball, It's a Knockout, the Bizz
- Name us as your Charity of The Year
- Have a collection box in the office
- Sponsor one of our events
- Advertise in our calendar
- Join our payroll giving scheme Give as You Earn
- Have a workplace charity committee to organise in house events
- Donate unwanted furniture and equipment to our Hospice shops
- Sell biscuits or Christmas corsages in the workplace
- Send our Corporate Christmas Cards

These are just a few suggestions- but if you have any other ideas just get in touch with Nichola Saunders on 01744 453798, or email nicky@willowbrookhospice.org.uk, and see how we can help!

Thanks to Pilkingtons...

who have donated a cheque to us each time they pass a set period of time without significant injury. The department gets 200 to donate to a charity of their choice. We are lucky to have benefited from this Health & Safety initiative.

Nick Wilson presented us with their cheque from Cowley Works, and treated us to a fascinating tour around the mirror works.

Park Inn take the Challenge

Louise, Tony, Marie (organiseer), John, Tom, Diane, Andy, Martin and Margaret (not pictured) from Park Inn St Helens ran in Challenge St Helens for Willowbrook. Thanks "Team Innaction!"

Bitopia Set the Standard in Challenge St Helens

An amazing event was held in September 08, Challenge St Helens run by Bitopia. It was a 5k road race, with a 1k for families. A wonderful day with families, occasional runners and serious marathon runners all taking part and enjoying the atmosphere. Willowbrook Hospice is proud to be supported by Bitopia.
