

Fundraising Office Reception

If you like meeting people, come and help us in the fundraising office. You will deal with callers and visitors to the office, take donations and other monies, answer the telephone, and be part of a friendly, busy office environment. You will need to be flexible, versatile, honest and trustworthy and ensure the promotion of the Hospice aims.