

Volunteering at Willowbrook

Some people are able to donate money, some people are able to donate something more precious - TIME. We couldn't run the Hospice without our army of volunteers.

" We think much more about the use of our money which is renewable, than we do about our time which is irreplaceable"

Jean-Louis Servan-Schreiber

How can I help

The Hospice could not afford to run without the valuable contribution from our volunteers.

What to do next

Please fill in the questions below and submit by e mail to express your interest in becoming one of our volunteers. Once we receive your details we will then send out an application form for you to fill in. If you don't have access to e mail then please telephone 0151 430 8736.

Current Volunteer Opportunities

Have a look at some of the volunteer jobs which would really help us to deliver an even better service for our patients

Ode to Volunteers

A short humorous poem celebrating the contribution of our volunteers

Photo Gallery

This year both Volunteers and Staff were invited to this social evening and over 150 people attended, 37 of which were collecting their 10 years or more service awards. The Hospice was delighted to welcome the British television news presenter and journalist Martyn Lewis to the event.

Time Talents and Treasures

A reading by Harry Welch, our Chaplain, on the contribution made by staff, volunteers and supporters who all make Willowbrook Hospice what it is today.